

Support and Engagement with Social Enterprises

Support and Engagement with Social Enterprises

Peter Rowland Group has demonstrated a longstanding commitment to supporting social enterprises through strategic partnerships and procurement initiatives. One significant example is our ongoing support of Social Enterprise Group Limited, a registered social enterprise.

Key Partnership:

- Social Enterprise Group Limited (Tenderprint)
- For over 10 years, Peter Rowland Group has engaged Tenderprint, a printing business located in Geelong, regional Australia. Tenderprint, as part of Social Enterprise Group Limited, operates with a social enterprise model focused on creating positive social impacts, including providing employment opportunities for disadvantaged groups.

Our Initiatives and Support Include:

- Regular procurement of printing services, contributing to the sustainability and growth of the social enterprise.
- Strategic collaboration aimed at supporting regional economic growth and employment in Geelong.
- Commitment to socially responsible procurement practices, prioritising suppliers that deliver positive social outcomes.

Peter Rowland Group remains dedicated to fostering and expanding partnerships with social enterprises, enhancing both community benefits and sustainable business practices.

Peter Rowland Group